1 and of its coordination and utilization by the various depart-
2 ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the Government.
3 The Central Intelligence Agency and related intelligence 4 services shall keep the joint committee fully and currently 5 informed with respect to their activities. All bills, resolu-
6 tions, and other matters in the Senate or the House of 7 Representatives relating primarily to the Central Intelligence 8 Agency and related intelligence services shall be referred to 9 the joint committee. The members of the joint committee
10 who are Members of the Senate shall from time to time
11 report to the Senate, and the members of the joint committee 12 who are Members of the House of Representatives shall from 13 time to time report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their 14 recommendations with respect to matters within the juris-15 diction of their respective Houses which are (1) referred 16 to the joint committee or (2) otherwise within the jurisdic-
17 tion of the joint committee.

18 SEC. 3. Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
19 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
20 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be 21 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original selec-
22 tion. The joint committee shall select a chairman and a vice 23 chairman from among its members.

24 SEC. 4. The joint committee, or any duly authorized
25 subcommittee thereof is authorized to hold such hearings,

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

Establishing a Joint Committee on Intelligence
Matters.

By Mr. SANTANGELO

JANUARY 22, 1959

Referred to the Committee on Rules

86TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

S. J. RES. 34

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 28, 1959

Mr. McCARTHY introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

JOINT RESOLUTION

To establish a Joint Committee on Foreign Information and Intelligence.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That (a) there is hereby established a joint congressional 4 committee to be known as the Joint Committee on Foreign 5 Information and Intelligence (referred to in this joint res-6 olution as the "joint committee"), to be composed of seven 7 Members of the Senate appointed by the President of the 8 Senate, and seven Members of the House of Representatives
9 appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
10 In each instance not more than four Members shall be ap-11 pointed from the same political party.

I—O

1 (b) Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
2 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
3 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be 4 filled in the same maner as in the case of the original 5 selection.

6 (c) The joint committee shall select a chairman and 7 a vice chairman from among its members at the beginning of 8 each Congress. The vice chairman shall act in the place 9 and stead of the chairman in the absence of the chairman.
10 The chairmanship shall alternate between the Senate and 11 the House of Representatives with each Congress, and the 12 chairman shall be selected by the members of the joint 13 committee from the House entitled to the chairmanship.
14 The vice chairman shall be selected in the same manner as 15 the chairman, except that the vice chairman shall be selected 16 by the members of the joint committee from the House not 17 entitled to the chairmanship.

18 (d) The joint committee may appoint and fix the com-
19 pensation of such experts, consultants, technicians, and cleri-20 cal and stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and 21 advisable.

22 (e) The joint committee is authorized to utilize the 23 services, information, facilities, and personnel of the executive 24 departments and establishments of the United States.

25 (f) The joint committee is authorized to classify infor-

1 mation originating within the joint committee in accordance 2 with standards used generally by the executive branch of the 3 Federal Government for classifying restricted data or defense 4 information.

5 (g) The joint committee shall keep a complete record 6 of all committee actions, including a record of the votes on 7 any question on which a record vote is demanded. All 8 committee records, data, charts, and files shall be the prop-9 erty of the joint committee and shall be kept in the offices of 10 the joint committee, or such other places as the joint com-11 mittee may direct, under such security safeguards as the joint 12 committee shall determine to be in the interest of national 13 security.

14 (h) The joint committee may make such rules respect-15 ing its organization and procedures as it deems advisable, 16 but no measure or recommendation shall be reported from 17 the joint committee unless a majority of the members thereof 18 assent.

19 SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing 20 studies of—

21 (1) the activities of each information and intelli-
22 gence agency of the United States,

23 (2) the problems relating to the foreign informa-24 tion and intelligence programs, and 25 (3) the problems relating to the gathering of in-

1 formation and intelligence affecting the national 2 security, and its coordination and utilization by the 3 various departments, agencies, and instrumentalities of 4 the United States.

5 (b) Each information and intelligence agency of the 6 United States shall give to the joint committee such in-7 formation regarding its activities as the committee may 8 require.

9 (c) As used in this joint resolution, the term "in-10 formation and intelligence agency of the United States" 11 means the United States Information Agency, the Central 12 Intelligence Agency, and any unit within any of the execu-
13 tive departments or agencies of the United States conduct-14 ing foreign information or intelligence activities (including 15 any unit within the Departments of State, Defense, Army, 16 Navy, and Air Force, but not including the domestic opera-17 tion of the Federal Bureau of Investigation).

18 SEC. 3. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the 19 Senate and House of Representatives relating primarily to 20 any information and intelligence agency of the United States 21 or its activities shall be referred to the joint committee. The 22 members of the joint committee who are Members of the 23 Senate shall, from time to time, report to the Senate, and 24 the members of the joint committee who are Members of the 25 House of Representatives shall, from time to time, report to

1 the House, by bill or otherwise, their recommendations with 2 respect to matters within the jurisdiction of their respective 3 Houses which are—

4 (1) referred to the joint committee, or

5 (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the joint 6 committee.

7 (b) In carrying out its duties under this joint resolu-
8 tion, the joint committee, or any duly authorized subcom-9 mittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings, to sit 10 and act at such times and places, to require, by subpoena
11 or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the pro-
12 duction of such books, papers, and documents, to administer 13 such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such print-14 ing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it deems 15 advisable. Subpenas may be issued over the signature of 16 the chairman of the joint committee, or by any member 17 designated by him, or by the joint committee, and may be 18 served by any person designated by such chairman or 19 member.

20 SEC. 4. The expenses of the joint committee shall be 21 paid from the contingent fund of the House from funds appro-22 priated for the joint committee upon vouchers approved by 23 the chairman. The cost of stenographic services in reporting
24 such hearings as the joint committee may hold shall be paid
25 in accordance with the established rules of the House. Mem-

6

1 bers of the joint committee, and its employees and consult-2 ants, while traveling on official business for the joint com-
3 mittee, may receive either the per diem allowance authorized 4 to be paid to Members of Congress or its employees, or their 5 actual and necessary expenses if an itemized statement of 6 such expenses is attached to the voucher.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 14, 1960

MR. KOWALSKI introduced the following joint resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Rules

To establish a Joint Committee on Central Intelligence.

1 Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3 That there is hereby established a Joint Committee on 4 Central Intelligence to be composed of seven Members of 5 the Senate to be appointed by the President of the Senate, 6 and seven Members of the House of Representatives to be
7 appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.
8 In each instance not more than four Members shall be 9 members of the same political party.

10 SEC. 2. The joint committee shall make continuing 11 studies of the intelligence activities and problems relating to

1 the gathering of intelligence affecting the national security
2 and of its coordination and utilization by the various depart-
3 ments, agencies, and instrumentalities of the Government.
4 The Central Intelligence Agency and other services engaged
5 in foreign intelligence activities shall keep the joint commit-6 tee fully and currently informed with respect to their activi-
7 ties. All bills, resolutions, and other matters in the Senate 8 or the House of Representatives relating primarily to the 9 Central Intelligence Agency and to other services engaged 10 in foreign intelligence activities shall be referred to the joint 11 committee. The members of the joint committee who are 12 Members of the Senate shall from time to time report to the 13 Senate, and the members of the joint committee who are 14 Members of the House of Representatives shall from time to 15 time report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their recom-
16 mendations with respect to matters within the jurisdiction of 17 their respective Houses which are (1) referred to the joint 18 committee or (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of the 19 joint committee.

20 SEC. 3. Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
21 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members 22 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall 23 be filled in the same manner as in the case of the original 24 selection. The joint committee shall select a chairman and 25 vice chairman from among its members.

3

1 SEC. 4. The joint committee, or any duly authorized
2 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings,
3 to sit and act at such places and times, to require, by sub-4 pena or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and 5 production of such books, papers, and documents, to admin-6 ister such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such 7 printing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it
8 deems advisable. The cost of stenographic services to report 9 such hearings shall not be in excess of 25 cents per hundred 10 words.

11 SEC. 5. The joint committee is empowered to appoint
12 such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and
13 stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and advisable.
14 The committee is authorized to utilize the services, informa-
15 tion, facilities, and personnel of the departments and estab-16 lishments of the Government on a reimbursable basis with 17 the prior consent of the heads of the departments or agencies 18 concerned.

19 SEC. 6. The expenses of the joint committee, which shall 20 not exceed $250,000 per year, shall be paid one-half from 21 the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half from the con-
22 tingent fund of the House of Representatives upon vouchers

H. CON. RES. 5

JANUARY 7, 1959

Mr. BOLAND submitted the following concurrent resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Rules

1 Resolved by the House of Representatives (the Senate
2 concurring), That there is hereby established a Joint Com-
3 mittee on Central Intelligence to be composed of six Mem-4 bers of the Senate to be appointed by the President of the 5 Senate, and six Members of the House of Representatives 6 to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representa-
7 tives. Of the six members to be appointed from the Senate,
8 three shall be members of the Central Intelligence Agency 9 Subcommittee of the Committee on Appropriations of the 10 Senate, and three shall be members of the Central Intelli-11 gence Agency Subcommittee of the Committee on Armed 12 Services of the Senate. Of the six members to be appointed

1 from the House of Representatives, three shall be members
2 of the Central Intelligence Agency Subcommittee of the 3 Committee on Appropriations of the House of Representa-
4 tives, and three shall be members of the Central Intelligence
5 Agency Subcommittee of the Committee on Armed Services
6 of the House of Representatives. Not more than four mem-7 bers appointed from either the Senate or the House of 8 Representatives shall be from the same political party.

9 SEC. 2. (a) The joint committee shall make continuing
10 studies of the activities of the Central Intelligence Agency
11 and of problems relating to the gathering of intelligence 12 affecting the national security and of its coordination and 13 utilization by the various departments, agencies, and instru-
14 mentalities of the Government. The Central Intelligence 15 Agency shall keep the joint committee fully and currently 16 informed with respect to its activities. All bills, resolutions, 17 and other matters in the Senate or the House of Representa-
18 tives relating primarily to the Central Intelligence Agency 19 shall be referred to the joint committee.

20 (b) The members of the joint committee who are 21 Members of the Senate shall from time to time report to the
22 Senate, and the members of the joint committee who are
23 Members of the House of Representatives shall from time to 24 time report to the House, by bill or otherwise, their recom-
25 mendations with respect to matters within the jurisdiction

1 of their respective Houses which are (1) referred to the 2 joint committee, or (2) otherwise within the jurisdiction of 3 the joint committee.

4 SEC. 3. Vacancies in the membership of the joint com-
5 mittee shall not affect the power of the remaining members
6 to execute the functions of the joint committee, and shall be
7 filled in the same manner as in the case of the original selec-
8 tion. The joint committee shall select a chairman and a
9 vice chairman from among its members.

10 SEC. 4. The joint committee, or any duly authorized
11 subcommittee thereof, is authorized to hold such hearings,
12 to sit and act at such places and times, to require, by sub-13 pena or otherwise, the attendance of such witnesses and the 14 production of such books, papers, and documents, to ad-15 minister such oaths, to take such testimony, to procure such 16 printing and binding, and to make such expenditures as it
17 deems advisable. The cost of stenographic services to re-18 port public hearings shall not be in excess of the amounts 19 prescribed by law for reporting the hearings of standing 20 committees of the Senate. The cost of such services to 21 report executive hearings shall be fixed at an equitable rate 22 by the joint committee.

23 SEC. 5. The joint committee is empowered to appoint
24 such experts, consultants, technicians, and clerical and
25 stenographic assistants as it deems necessary and advisable.

1 The committee is authorized to utilize the services, infor-2 mation, facilities, and personnel of the departments and 3 establishments of the Government.

4 SEC. 6. The expenses of the joint committee, which 5 shall not exceed $ per year, shall be paid one-
6 half from the contingent fund of the Senate and one-half
7 from the contingent fund of the House of Representatives 8 upon vouchers signed by the chairman. Disbursements to 9 pay such expenses shall be made by the Secretary of the 10 Senate out of the contingent fund of the Senate, such con-11 tingent fund to be reimbursed from the contingent fund of 12 the House of Representatives in the amount of one-half of 13 the disbursements so made.
